

McAuley Works – assisting women in to work

McAuley Works is here to help you find and keep a job.

We assist women who have experienced family violence, homelessness or mental health issues find meaningful work and financial independence.

Our dedicated workers will:

- Come to you to discuss your needs and how we can help.
- Work with you to set goals in relation to the sort of work you want to do whether it's full time, part time or casual.
- Work with you on reviewing your skills and qualifications, and what training you might need to get the job you want.
- Work with you on writing resumes and cover letters and interview training.

What McAuley Works offers

We run a free intensive and personalised program to help women secure jobs and support themselves and their family financially.

This includes:

- Resume preparation
- Interview training
- Referrals for interviews
- Job seeking skills training
- Obtaining work experience.

Once you have your job, we support you to keep the job.

For more information call the McAuley Works Coordinator on 0409 934 335 or talk to your case worker to see if this program is for you.

About McAuley Community Services for Women

McAuley Community Services for Women works with women and their children who are experiencing family violence and women who are homeless or at risk of homelessness. McAuley Community Services for Women is a Ministry of the Sisters of Mercy.

McAuley Community
Services for Women

A ministry of the Sisters of Mercy

McAuley Community Services for Women

T 0409 934 335

E mcsw@mcauleycsw.org.au

W www.mcauleycsw.org.au

McAuley Works is supported by the Victorian Government through Jobs Victoria.